SPRING 2021

At Gemline, we design with purpose. Our design team conducts research to uncover cultural and design trends to create thoughtfully designed, high quality, trend-right products that are meaningful and relevant to what your customers want and value.

Our products are designed with purpose in two ways: we create products that are artfully designed yet fully functional and flexible for today's fluid lifestyle and we design products that make a difference—products that are eco-friendly, use natural and renewable resources, support giving back and promote reuse. We complement our line by developing partnerships with trusted, well-known brands to give you the best selection of innovative, smart and highly desirable products at a wide variety of price points. We deliver the utmost in customer service and satisfaction and make the process seamless and easy for you.
